

Call for proposals:

A Franco-German journalism project for Students

"Voices against racism and populism"

No place for hate and prejudice in everyday life and on the internet

You want to write an article, shoot a report or produce a podcast? You are interested in racism and populism? Then our media and blog project is just right for you! We invite you to join one of 3 teaching and learning editorial teams to produce your own feature. So you can choose between the (1) text, (2) film or (3) podcast team. From concept to publication, you will be supported by young German-French journalists. Don't worry – previous journalistic experience is not a requirement.

Period: October 24th to December 15th 2023 (hybrid: online/present).

The project contains:

- A basis online workshop "Populism and Racism": we will learn to explore and reflect on the topics of populism and racism from a theoretical perspective with trainers from the Anti-Racism Information Center, ARIC-NRW e.V.
Dates: 4 x 120 minutes - October 24 & 31, November 07 & 14 from 6pm to 8pm
- Three attendance workshops in Freiburg: We will all get to know each other personally and the editorial offices will start their work. In our free time, we will discover Freiburg and its surroundings with a diverse sightseeing program.
Dates: from Friday 3.11. to Sunday 5.11., Friday 17.11. to Sunday 19.11. and on Saturday 02.12.

Who can participate? Eligible are students of Universities and Colleges as well as Associations of Student Unions and CROUS: Strasbourg, Mulhouse, Karlsruhe and Freiburg. Working languages: German and French. (Maximum age 30 years).

Participation in the online workshop "Populism and Racism" and in the on-site meetings in Freiburg is mandatory for participants. The maximum permissible absenteeism is 25% in each case (online as well as in presence). Participants will receive a certificate of successful participation in French as well as in German at the end of the project. Participation in the project is free of charge (incl. meals, travel costs, accommodation). A maximum of 8 participants will be admitted to each editorial office.
