Frontaliers - Grenzgänger

 Franco-German HipHop Songwriting Workshop

17.-19. 02. 2022 - Freiburg (Germany)

Music, poetry and languages know no boundaries. Are you also convinced of this and do you feel like expressing yourself through songs? Then join our creative workshop with Zweierpasch, the successful German-French hip-hop duo Till and Felix! You can write your song, rap and “cross boundaries” (“Grenzen überschreiten, grenzenlos über Grenzen” - quote from the song “Grenzgänger” by Zweierpasch).

The Studierendenwerk Freiburg-Schwarzwald offers a hybrid songwriting workshop in cooperation with Zweierpasch. It is about getting to know the methods of writing as well as rapping. You will have the opportunity to produce your own lyrics in a project group and bring them live on stage at a final German-French event. You are passionate about hip-hop music and have always wanted to write, but never had the opportunity? You've already written lyrics and now you want to learn more about recording and performance techniques? You always celebrate awesome beats and good flows? Then don't miss your chance. And because nowadays music can't go without video, we'll also shoot a video clip with Freiburg filmmaker Sebastian Lucht.

Dates:

- 2 online modules on songwriting on 04.02.2022 and 14.02.2022 each from 4 to 6 pm.
- Three-day presence workshop in Freiburg / Germany from 17.02.2022 to 19.02.2022 (arrival day 16.02.2022, departure day 20.02.2022) with final event and live performance on 19.02.2022 (MensaBar Rempartstraße, Freiburg).

Program:

- Discover and practice songwriting
- Record your song (alone or with one or more other participants) in Zweierpasch's studio and make a video clip of it.
- In the end you can perform the song on the stage of the MensaBar.
